1. During the week of 16 July 1950, large numbers of trusted Austrian Communist Party (KPOs) members who were trained by the Nazis as radiomen and air force technicians reported to KPOs Headquarters at Vienna IX, Wasagasse 10. [redacted] each KPOs member gave the password "Maxim" when he entered the building. This password has since been changed. [redacted] not determined the purpose of these gatherings, it has been [redacted] surmise that the KPOs may be preparing to send a unit of trained Communists to fight in Korea.
